April 18 - Day 2

Plantation & Swamp Tours

We will board our tour bus this morning and head out for our plantation tour to Houmas House, where lunch will be served. We will experience life on a sugarcane plantation in the 1800's. We will have a guided mansion tour and free time to walk through the expansive gardens.

Now we journey to the other side of New Orleans for a completely different type of tour. We will get up close and personal with the Honey Island Swamp of New Orleans. Our private boat tour will take us through the swamp to experience the unique flora and fauna of this area.

April 19 - Day 3

French Quarter & Garden District Tour

Now that we are starting to get to know this amazing city, take a close look at the French Quarter. Our French Quarter and Garden District tour will take us down historic streets and alleys of the Old District, passing by the street theater, peeking into historic churches, discovering hidden courtyards, all while entertaining you with stories of authors, artists, priests and pirates.

We will head out to the garden district. Just a short streetcar ride from the French Quarter, it feels worlds apart. We will stroll the leafy, magnolia shaded streets of the Garden District and a city of the dead, Lafayette Cemetery #1. This walking tour is not just mansions and manicured gardens, but stories of legends, tragedy, epidemics, lost causes, movie stars, celebrity chefs, and haunted spirits.

April 20 - Day 4

New Orleans School of Cooking & Haunted History Tour

Enjoy some free time this morning to explore, shop or just relax. New Orleans is famous for its food and today we will taste and learn all about this exceptional cuisine. We will start the day at the New Orleans School of Cooking for our private, hands-on cooking class.

In small groups we will be guided through cooking a 3 menu-course Louisiana dinner. Fun is the primary ingredient in this cooking class. Dinner will include beer and wine and we will each get a New Orleans Cooking School apron to bring home.

After dinner we will enjoy a haunted history tour. The spirits of the city's past inhabitants are just 'dying' to be discovered on this extraordinary New Orleans experience. This is a great way to learn the Creole history of the Big Easy in the creepiest and scariest manner possible!

April 21 - Day 5

Culinary & Music Tours

Enjoy some free time this morning to explore, shop or just relax. This afternoon we will head out on a Food & History Tour through the French Quarter. We will learn how this unique cuisine evolved and taste some famous dishes. It is the perfect way to get acquainted with this fabulous city and the food that makes it famous.

This evening we will make our way from the French Quarter to the Marigny checking out local street musicians and local favorite drinks (drinks not included) and talk about the early history of music, drinking and vice in New Orleans. Touring we can go to Congo square at Louis Armstrong Park where hundreds of slaves would sing and dance in their local traditions dating back to the 1700's. The Treme is famous for it's music and we talk about the deep roots of musical history of the city from the first Native drumming circles and slave ships that enriched New Orleans music to this day. We will catch live music like a brassband on Frenchmen St or a band in the courtyard at Bacchanals in the 9th ward! The 9th ward is home to many amazing music legends and where we will tour and talk about music legends like Fats Domino, Trombone Shorty, Jessie Hill and Big Freeda!
